

Year 2: Relationships

Key Learning

I can be a good friend by listening, being kind and being honest.

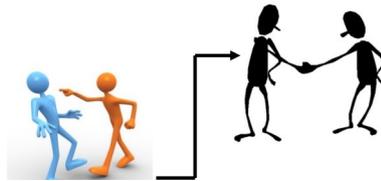

There are lots of different ways that people meet and make friends. I can make friends with children at school, or children who live on my street.

There are lots of different ways that I can play nicely with my friends. I can join in and include others.

Sometimes we might have arguments with our friends. These can be caused by lots of things - disagreements, not sharing, or a difference in interests.

I know how to resolve arguments with my friends. We can talk about what happened and why it made us feel a certain way.

I know how to ask for help and who I can go to when I am feeling lonely or unhappy. I want to help others when they are feeling this way too.

I know what hurtful behaviour looks like, what to do and who to tell if I see this behaviour online or in person.

There are different types of bullying and I understand how someone may feel if they are being bullied.

I know the difference between happy surprises and secrets that make me feel worried, and how to get help if I feel this way.

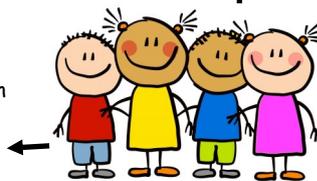

I can resist pressure to do something that feels uncomfortable or unsafe. I have the vocabulary to ask for help if I feel unsafe or worried.

I have things in common with my friends, classmates and other people.

I can take part in discussions, sharing my own ideas and listening to others. I can give reasons for my views.

We can play and work in different groups and situations.
